95 Express Lanes Southern Terminus Extension

The proposed project involves extending the southern terminus of the 95 Express Lanes by approximately two miles with a reversible single lane that splits into northbound and southbound merge ramps. A new southbound end point will carry express lanes traffic past Route 610 (Garrisonville Road) and back into the I-95 southbound regular lanes. A new left entry from northbound I-95 will be located south of Route 610. Improvements are intended to lessen congestion at the entrance and exit points of the 95 Express Lanes in Stafford.

Construction is estimated to begin later this year, and be completed in 2018. The southern extension of the 95 Express Lanes is being done in partnership by VDOT and Transurban.
